2004 CEA Meetings

The 2003 CEA Meetings had over 750 registrants which is a record. Thanks to Curtis Eaton and Frances Woolley for organizing a fine conference.

In 2004, the CEA Meetings will be at Ryerson University, Toronto from Friday June 4th to Sunday June 6th. Barbara Spencer, UBC, will be organizing the program. Tom Barbiero, Ryerson, is the local organizer. More information is available on the CEA web site: <http://economics.ca>

Harry Johnson Prize

Each year the Harry Johnson Prize is awarded to the authors of the best article in the CJE. The winners in 2002 are:

Robin Boadway, Nick Marceau and Steeve Mongrain for their article, "Joint Tax Evasion" in the August issue of the journal.

John Vanderkamp Prize

Canadian Public Policy/Analyse de Politiques is pleased to announce that the winner of the John Vanderkamp Prize for the best paper published in the journal in 2002 is:

Susan Johnson for the paper entitled "Canadian Union Density 1980 to 1998 and Prospects for the Future: An Empirical Investigation."

The recipient receives $1,000. The winner was selected by a multidisciplinary panel. We would also like to mention the following paper for honourable mention:

Pierre Lefebvre and Philip Merrigan for the paper entitled "The Effect of Childcare and Early Education Arrangements on Developmental Outcomes of Young Children."
